

Korah S. Skuce Regional Director | P. (910) 987-7816 E. KSkuce@amikids.org

Korah serves as the Program Director for the Virginia Regional Service Coordination Team, as well as the central point of contact for AMIKids Inc. Korah has been with AMIKids since 2011, beginning as the Executive Director for North Carolina Family Services. She is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker with her Masters' degree in Social Work from East Carolina University. She has more than 10 years' experience of direct clinical practice with a range of populations and settings and over 9 years' director/management experience.

Ernest Madison Eastern Regional Services Manager | P. (757) 620-4175 E. VAServices-RSM@amikids.org

As the Eastern Regional Services Manager, Ernest is the central point of contact for service coordination in CSU 1, 2, 2A, 3, 4, 5, 7, and 8. Ernest has worked for AMIKids Virginia since 2016 as part of DJJ's Service Coordination efforts. He has over 25 years of leadership and management experience working in various state and local positions in the juvenile justice arena, including 10 years as a Juvenile Probation Officer. Ernest has a Master's Degree in Public Administration from George Washington University and a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from East Carolina University.

Betty Dixon Southern Regional Services Manager | P. (804) 627-2086 E. VAServices-RSM2@amikids.org

As the Southern Regional Services Manager, Betty is the central point of contact for service coordination in CSU 6, 10, 11, 12, 13 & 14. Betty began her work with juvenile justice through an internship with the Roanoke CSU, then Probation Counselor and Supervisor with the 16th CSU, and finally as DJJ's Regional Manager in the Western Region. She left DJJ, but never stopped working on behalf of juveniles and their families as she joined the private sector to develop the first intensive in-home service in Virginia. Through public-private partnerships, she learned the value of collaboration to grow "best practice," community and home based programs to meet the needs of child and family serving agencies nationally. The RSC model blends her knowledge of DJJ with her experience in sustaining effective, research-based services as a private provider.

Jaclyn M Scott Clinical Services Specialist | P. (804) 510-8101 E. VAServices-CS@amikids.org

Jaclyn began with AMIKids in 2011 as a Functional Family Therapist clinician in North Carolina working directly with youth and families involved in the court system. She now serves as the Clinical Services Specialist with AMIKids Virginia, providing additional support to programs and ensuring best practices across regions. Jaclyn is also the central point of contact for all Direct Care referrals from DJJ's CAP unit. As a fully licensed clinician with a Masters in Counseling she is committed to fostering bright futures for our youth and their communities.
